

Norton Hall Children and Family Centre, Saltley

Friday 14 March 10am-2pm

Autism Awareness

Training for staff and volunteers delivering services to children and young people.

After this course, you will:

- Understand what autism is (and isn't) and how it can impact daily life
- Gain increased confidence in working, communicating and interacting with autistic people
- Learn how to implement autism specific strategies into how you work or volunteer.

The training is led by expert trainers from Resources for Autism. It is welcoming and fun. It includes practical case studies focusing on: communication; social interaction; sensory differences; flexibility and routine; and how you can help.

Norton Hall is a member of Children's Quarter
The Children and Family Centre is based on Ralph Road Saltley Birmingham B8 1NA close to bus routes 8 and 14.

Places cost £30 including light refreshments but they are FREE for members of Children's Quarter and groups taking part in Fit for All and Bring it On Brum!

Book places at development@childrensquarter.org or online at:

childrensquarter.org

Organised by Children's Quarter with support from Bring it On Brum

Children's Quarter is a co-operative of community groups and other organisations. It is registered at Companies House with company no 11001331 Our registered address is All Saints Centre, 2 Vicarage Road, Kings Heath, Birmingham B14 7RA

Community Groups can join the Children's Quarter co-op for just £25 - see online!